Reference my memorandum 3/15/71 which forwarded 118-page exhibit setting out damage assessment based on review of 86 documents stolen from Media-Resident Agency relating to work of Domestic Intelligence Division. Attached are 21 pages detailing individual assessments of 16 additional items identified as stolen which relate to work of Domestic Intelligence Division received subsequent to 3/15/71 memorandum. (These pages are numbered 119-139 for sequential inclusion in the referenced exhibit.)

Racial Matters

Three of 16 documents pertain to work in this area; all relate to cases previously assessed. No new substantive cases or subjects surfaced.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN
OTHERWISE

Initials "AI" and "SI" mentioned but not spelled out as Agitator and Security Index. The phrase "Security Index" was exposed in documents previously assessed. u

Army Intelligence conducted investigation on one Korean subject, but detailed results not shown. R

Damage Assessment

Referenced memorandum noted accurate damage assessment hinges on extent of public exposure given contents of compromised documents. With this point in mind, damage assessment based on study of 16 pertinent documents is rendered. Damage in racial field believed slight regarding substantive investigations. [redacted]

b7D per FBI

[redacted] BPP use of violence against "police spies" could subject these sources to physical retribution from the BPP. u

Summary

In addition to the above specific points, 16 items assessed refer to toll call checks, availability to the Bureau of information from banking records, American Express Company records, Diners Club records, credit information, Department of Motor Vehicles records, and information contained in the files of the Department of State and Immigration and Naturalization Service. The technique of physical surveillance was also set out. To date, a total of eight classified documents have been compromised along with

Our investigative interest in 177 subjects and 33 organizations (these figures include those set out in the first assessment) have been surfaced. u

ACTION:

1. Domestic Intelligence Division will continue to individually assess any additional documents identified as having been stolen, and will consider any remedial action deemed necessary. u

2. Since publicity is now being afforded documents taken in this burglary, we will, if approved, advise other Government agencies where their connection with FBI investigations has been exposed. u
